RED SECURES FIFTH NO. 1 RADIO SINGLE WITH "LOST"

Band's Debut Album Maintains Perfect Record at Christian Rock Radio

(Nashville, Tenn.) June 18, 2008 – Dove Award-winning rock band Red is a remarkable five-for-five at Christian Rock radio, as "Lost," the latest single from its debut album End of Silence (6/6/06), has reached the top mark on the format. "Lost" follows an impressive list of No. 1 radio singles from Red, including "Breathe Into Me," "Already Over," "Break Me Down" and "Let Go."

Red guitarist, Anthony Armstrong, on the accomplishment. "Speechless and thankful would begin to explain how we feel right now. We can't convey enough thanks to Christian Rock radio, and everyone that supports us. God continually blesses this band, and it's amazing to see it happen. One thing's for sure - we're just getting started."

Additionally, "Already Over," also from Red's End of Silence album, is currently No. 18 on the R&R Active Rock radio chart and No. 31 on the R&R Alternative radio chart.

Red will play multiple Christian music festivals throughout the summer. For all tour dates and information, visit www.redmusiconline.com or www.myspace.com/dropofred.

Since the June 6, 2006 release of its debut album, End of Silence (Essential Records), Red has toured non-stop (over 250 dates per year), collected five No. 1 radio singles at Christian Rock radio ("Breathe Into Me," "Already Over," "Break Me Down," "Let Go" and "Lost"), won a Dove Award (Rock Recorded Song for "Breathe Into Me"), and received a GRAMMY nomination in the category Best Rock or Rap Gospel Album for End of Silence. The five-member band is: Michael Barnes, lead vocals; Anthony Armstrong, guitar; Randy Armstrong, bass; Jasen Rauch, guitar; and Hayden Lamb, drums. End of Silence was produced by Dove-nominated producer/songwriter Rob Graves and mixed by Ben Grosse (Red Hot Chili Peppers, Fuel, Sixpence None the Richer).
