RED GRABS GRAMMY NOMINATION FOR *END OF SILENCE

(Nashville, Tenn.) December 7, 2006 – Modern rock band Red pulled in its first GRAMMY nomination today, receiving the nod in the Best Rock or Rap Gospel Album category for their debut End of Silence, at a press conference in Hollywood, Calif. The nominations were announced by The Recording Academy.

Red guitarist, Jasen Rauch, shares the band's reaction to the nomination, "We are so excited to do what we love and be able to make music. Something like a GRAMMY nomination is so far above our expectations it is hard to believe. We have a great label, agent, manager, and most of all great fans. We want to thank everyone for all of their support from day one."

The 49th Annual GRAMMY Awards will be held on "GRAMMY Sunday," Feb. 11, 2007, at STAPLES Center in Los Angeles and once again will be broadcast live in high definition TV and 5.1 surround sound on CBS from 8 – 11:30 p.m. (ET/PT).

By the end of 2006, Red will have released its debut End of Silence (June 6, 2006 - Essential Records) and played well over 250 concerts. With currently more than 44,000 fans on MySpace (www.myspace.com/dropofRed), the band makes it a priority to write each and every fan back personally and let them know how much their support is appreciated. The five-member band is: Mike Barnes, lead vocals; Anthony Armstrong, guitar; Randy Armstrong, bass; Jasen Rauch, guitar; and Hayden Lamb, drums. End of Silence was produced by Dove-nominated producer/songwriter Rob Graves and mixed by Ben Grosse (Red Hot Chili Peppers, Fuel, Sixpence None the Richer).
